

Fluid Motion Solutions

Service and Aftermarket Offerings

Ensuring our parts work as hard as you do

Aftermarket Services

We provide the following aftermarket services across our product lines and competitive equipment:

- Original factory replacement parts for our NOV products
- Equipment upgrades + competitor retrofits
- Repair and refurbishment via certified service center network
- Original factory replacement parts for competitive products

Field Services

We support our customers onsite after equipment purchase providing local field services including:

- Installation
- Troubleshooting w/onsite repair + rebuilds
- Advanced vibration analysis + remote monitoring
- PM programs/predictive maintenance/service contracts
- Startup and commissioning
- Failure analysis
- Site survey

Automation and Technology Support

We provide support for all automated and onsite control systems and remote monitoring services, including the following:

- Equipment monitoring and analytics
- Bespoke monitoring packages to optimize maintenance and equipment performance
- Tailored service / monitoring contracts
- Aftermarket support

Training Services

We provide installation and product training courses tailored to the supplied capital equipment or to fit the client's needs and application. These are available in the field or at a convenient classroom location.

Service you are looking for not listed?

Please contact your local sales rep or distributor to discuss your needs.